American Prison Shane Bauer

In 2014, award-winning journalist Shane Bauer was hired for $9 an hour to work as a prison guard in Winnfield, Louisiana. Four months later, his employment ended abruptly, but he had seen more than enough. He wrote an exposé about his experiences that won a National Magazine Award. In American Prison, Bauer weaves a much deeper reckoning with his experiences with a thoroughly researched history of for-profit prisons in America. As he soon realized, we can't understand the cruelty of our current system without understanding where it came from. Private prisons became

Copies entrenched in the South as part of a systemic effort to keep the African-American labor force in place in the aftermath of slavery, and the echoes of these shameful origins are with us still.

Resistance Jennifer Nielsen

Chaya Lindner is a teenager living in Nazi-occupied Poland. After her little sister is taken away, her younger brother disappears, and her parents seem to give up hope. But Chaya is determined to make a difference. Using forged papers she becomes a courier and travels between the Jewish ghettos of Poland, smuggling food, papers, and even people. Soon Chaya joins a resistance cell that runs raids on the Nazis' supplies. But after a mission goes terribly wrong, Chaya's network shatters, sending her on a journey toward an even larger uprising in the works -- in the Warsaw Ghetto.

Mirage Somaiya Daud

In a world dominated by a brutal empire, eighteen-year-old Amani is a dreamer. She dreams of what life was like before the occupation, of adventure and traveling beyond her isolation. But when adventure comes for Amani, it's not what she expected: she is kidnapped by the regime and taken to the royal palace to meet the cruel, half-Vathek princess, Maram. The princess is so hated by her people that she requires a body double, someone ready to die in her place. Amani has been chosen for the job. As she is forced into her new role, she can't help but enjoy the palace's beauty. But the glitter of the royal court belies a world of violence and fear. If Amani ever wishes to see her family again, she must play along.

Shadow Tyrants Clive Cussler

Nearly two thousand years ago, an Eastern emperor charged a small group with safeguarding secrets powerful enough to change the history of mankind. They went down in legend as the Nine Unknown Men-- now two rival factions of their descendants are at war. Both sides think they are saving the world, but they could very well bring about the end of humankind. Soon, Juan Cabrillo and his team of operatives aboard the Oregon find themselves trapped between two power-hungry adversaries who are willing to use any means to accomplish their goals. The crew must rely on their unique skills to stop the tyrants in their tracks and save the earth from a dynasty of terror.

Dead Man Running Steve Hamilton

Martin T. Livermore is the key suspect in the abduction and murder of at least five women, but he's never been this sloppy before. When the FBI finally catches him in Scottsdale, he declares he'll only talk to one person: a retired police officer from Detroit, now a private investigator living in the tiny town of Paradise, Michigan. A man named Alex McKnight. Alex doesn't know Martin Livermore, but it soon becomes clear that Livermore's capture was only the beginning of an elaborate, twisted plot with McKnight at the center. In a hunt that will take him across the country and to the edge of his limits, McKnight fights to stop a vicious killer before he can exact his ultimate revenge. And his grand finale will cut closer to home than he ever could have imagined.
